About Wirral NHS Trust

Located on a 15-acre section of Arrowe Park, close to the village of Upton, Wirral, Merseyside and only 25 minutes via Mersey Tunnel to City Centre Liverpool; Arrow Park hospital is a large, acute hospital. It is one of three hospitals managed by Wirral University Teaching Hospital NHS Foundation Trust Primary Care Recruitment are looking for passionate applicants interested in relocating to the UK to gain exciting future development opportunities in this reputable NHS Teaching Hospital.

As teaching hospital Wirral are very proud of the improvements their staff have developed in order to support high quality patient care. The Trust holds a 'Best Practice' event on an annual basis that external organisations are welcome to attend as well their own staff. The aim of this event is to share best practice and influence and motivate colleagues to use similar approaches or build on the work that they have already implemented in healthcare services.

The Best Practice Day (held every year in June) is a unique opportunity for staff to share innovation, best practice and service improvement from across the organisation.

The event is a clear example of the expertise, creativity and motivation of nursing staff in Wirral NHS Trust.

Why Choose Wirral NHS Trust?

Nursing in Wirral

Within their friendly and supportive culture, the Wirral NHS trust team make the time to help you learn and develop whatever your specialty. They listen to your views because they count on you and want you to have a say in the future of the Trust.

Listening into Action

Wirral are a modern thinking Trust. Listening into Action (LiA) their new way of working is about having the voice of their nurses heard on areas that matter to them. It's also about letting the Trust know what gets in their way as a clinician and what changes should be prioritized. LiA is a systematic approach to engage and empower clinicians and staff around any challenge. It's about mobilizing and leveraging the full potential of the Wirral workforce to improve outcomes for patients, for staff, and for the Trust. LiA empowers your team to drive forward positive changes, shifts the culture and style of leadership, re-energizes staff who previously felt helpless and unable to act, and challenges existing assumptions and eliminates wasteful or irrelevant activities that provide no value to patients. The Trust also offers training and development opportunities in each role and offers a competitive Salary and Benefit Package for new entrants. Wirral's location puts many attractions and places of interest within reach and makes an ideal base for touring.

There are spectacular seascapes, picture postcard villages and bustling centres

Living in Wirral

Wirral is a great place to live. In fact three towns in Wirral are ranked in the top 10 most desirable places to live in England, a new study reveals.

Bebington CH63 is ranked as the most desirable postcode in England, with Eastham CH62 ranked as the eighth and Wallasey CH45 as ninth, according to the Royal Mail.

Warrington WA1 was ranked as the seventh most desirable postcode.

The report commissioned this year showed that residents in Bebington, Wirral enjoyed the ideal balance of being able to live close to their place of employment, good schools and high employment. The city is also only an hour on the train to London. Factors considered to determine the ranking were good schools, access to green spaces, good employment prospects, affordable housing and average commuting times.

Wirral is difficult to beat. There are spectacular seascapes, picture postcard villages and bustling centres loved by the fashion conscious and discerning diners. It is a place that has kept its own identity, determined not to be overshadowed by its larger, former Capital of Culture neighbour, Liverpool, and has capitalised on the opportunities its proximity to the city centre has offered.

Millions of tourists pour into the area every year to soak up the atmosphere of pretty villages like Thornton Hough and to drink in the history at popular Port Sunlight Village, home to the renowned Lady Lever Art Gallery.

Rent, Cost of Living & Commuting Time

Wirral's diversity and dedication has not gone unnoticed. Home buyers, eager to live here, clamour for the opportunity to have a home in places like West Kirby, Thurstaston and Neston. Hoylake, Heswall and Parkgate attract attention too. But it is very difficult to go wrong with any place you may choose. The beauty of this area is that there is a home for every budget, whether you are in the market for a small house full of character or a more spacious family home.

If you love the coast and are prepared to spend that little bit extra, you can get an idyllic home along the estuary in places like Parkgate and West Kirby. There are beautiful homes in places like Raby and for homes that are full of character, as well as history, there are villages like Thornton Hough, which is mentioned in the Domesday Book. Ups: Lots of fantastic places to live and visit, plenty to do, more than adequate amenities, great shops and restaurants and friendly locals. Downs: It's actually difficult to decide where to live because of so much choice. Wirral is also well placed for commuting to areas outside of Wirral, and it's very accessible to Liverpool commuters

Schools

Wirral is a great place to bring up a family, backed up with the large numbers of schools, both private and state, that have excellent reputations and come highly recommended

Transport Trains run regularly from many places throughout Wirral through to Liverpool city centre and Chester. Bus travel is also fairly easy with routes covering most of the main towns and villages. The nearest airport is Liverpool John Lennon Airport, located less than ten miles away.

Commuting: Major routes like the M53 make travel around Wirral easy. There is also the M56 motorway nearby giving access to other parts of the county and the M6 is not too far away. Commuting is quite easy for those planning on journeying from the vibrant Liverpool city centre.

Shops: Plenty to choose from in Wirral whether you love high fashion, love picking up the latest designs for your home or you love browsing art work produced by locals.

Restaurants/bars: There is everything from classy wine bars, well regarded restaurants, including one with a Michelin star, or places that offer more relaxed eating.

Entertainment

From enjoying a walk along the spectacular coastline, to enjoying good food in Hoylake, shop for all the latest fashions in places like Heswall and you can soak up the atmosphere at places like Port Sunlight Village and Thornton Hough. On July 25th Port Sunlight Village Festival takes place. Expect a fun day out for all the family including a free to enter dog show, live entertainment and salsa and samba dancers.

Testimonials from the Wirral Team

Finally have a read of some of the great things the Wirral Team have to say about their experience working in the Wirral Teaching hospital and on the Wards.

Name: Sujatha Samuel

Occupation: Theatres Supervisor at Wirral NHS Trust

"For 28 years I have been qualified and I still enjoy every day of my career. Every day brings in a new type of operation, a new person, every procedure can be the same procedure but it is different in every patient. There are a lot challenges involved and you'll never get bored. You enjoy your day, work together as a team and go home satisfied that you've done a great job, and you know you've given the patient the best care that they deserve, so I would recommend anybody who's looking for a challenging career to join us. We will train them so they will be the future of Wirral Teaching hospital and they will be proud, and make our Trust proud."

Name Elaine Lewis

Occupation: Emergency Nurse in Emergency & Surgery Assessment Unit at Wirral NHS Trust

"To be invited into someone's life when they're unwell and you've been given that responsibility to make them better, and sometimes you can't make them better, but you've still got something to give them, you've got to have that passion. It can be a difficult environment to work in at times; the pressures and what is required from us, but you've just got to remember at the end of it we're improving patient care.

For me it's a local hospital as I live locally. It's a great hospital, and a great 'Teaching hospital', you can see the changes that are happening and I think it will only get better"
